

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL.

VOL. XIX.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1891.

NO. 46

HUSTONVILLE.

—James Harper sold a fancy mule last week for $125.

—What has become of your versatile Crab Orchard scribe? We miss his excellent lucubrations.

—Our fox-hunters got back from Dripping Springs Saturday evening after a delightful time with their Garrard and Madison brethren, of whose hospitality they are extravagant.

—Mr. G. C. Clayton, just over the Casey border, reports a gallinaceous prodigy in a three-months-old pullet, which set up house-keeping latter part of July. Poultry fanciers can rely upon Mr. Clayton's veracity and accuracy, paradoxical as is his statement.

—The stock premiums offered by Danville Fair Association were too meager to draw a blue exhibit from our vicinity. Many stables in which are wearers of the blue didn't have a representative. Owners and drivers thought it a good time to rest up and prepare for richer fields.

—There has not been much election talk since last Tuesday's papers were distributed. Some of our incumbents who opposed the new constitution derive some comfort from the reflection that their lease is extended a year by the instrument which seems to have met the approval of a majority.

—Dr. Brown is especially proud of a recent testimony from fair hands. On dropping into his den after an exhaustive drive one day last week he was startled momentarily by sight of a large hamper filled and heaped with canned fruits, jams, preserves, and luscious apples, peaches, pears, and plums.

—Cale Brown spent last week at and about Liberty, professedly visiting his mother.

Thompson Cooper was up last Saturday and Sunday.

He brought the family as he is not campaigning now.

Jimmie Cook ran up from the Falls last Saturday and stayed over till Monday.

He says fishing is still splendid.

He superintended weighing a "yaller cat" caught a few days ago which balanced at an honest 50 pounds.

George Weatherford came by from Danville Fair and accompanied Jimmie Cook to the Falls for a week's good feasting and sleep.

Jim Harper and Jim Reid are at Russell

Springs taking a rest before beginning

fall farm-work.

Prof. M. G. Thompson and wife were called home from Russell

Springs by the illness of their little daughter.

Mrs. Sophie Carpenter, of Somerset,

has been spending a few days

with her parents and brother.

She goes to Green Briar this week accompanied by her mother and Mrs. J. B. Green.

Mrs. Dr. Lee Huffman, of Lexington, is

with her parents.

Mrs. S. G. Drue, accompanied by Brother and Millard Allen, went to the Falls last week.

Miss Dollie Williams will teach at Nicholasville the ensuing year. Her excellence as a teacher insures a remunerative salary.

BARBOURVILLE, KNOX COUNTY.

—Mrs. Effie Brownlie, of Wasiota, is visiting Miss Ada Sublet at Mayor S. B. Dishman's. Prof. J. M. Hubbard, of the Stanford Female College, was here Tuesday in the interest of his school.

—Our fox-hunters got back from Dripping Springs Saturday evening after a delightful time with their Garrard and Madison brethren, of whose hospitality they are extravagant.

—Mr. G. C. Clayton, just over the Casey border, reports a gallinaceous prodigy in a three-months-old pullet, which set up house-keeping latter part of July. Poultry fanciers can rely upon Mr. Clayton's veracity and accuracy, paradoxical as is his statement.

—The stock premiums offered by Danville Fair Association were too meager to draw a blue exhibit from our vicinity. Many stables in which are wearers of the blue didn't have a representative. Owners and drivers thought it a good time to rest up and prepare for richer fields.

—There has not been much election talk since last Tuesday's papers were distributed. Some of our incumbents who opposed the new constitution derive some comfort from the reflection that their lease is extended a year by the instrument which seems to have met the approval of a majority.

—Dr. Brown is especially proud of a recent testimony from fair hands. On dropping into his den after an exhaustive drive one day last week he was startled momentarily by sight of a large hamper filled and heaped with canned fruits, jams, preserves, and luscious apples, peaches, pears, and plums.

—Cale Brown spent last week at and about Liberty, professedly visiting his mother. Thompson Cooper was up last Saturday and Sunday. He brought the family as he is not campaigning now. Jimmie Cook ran up from the Falls last Saturday and stayed over till Monday. He says fishing is still splendid. He superintended weighing a "yaller cat" caught a few days ago which balanced at an honest 50 pounds. George Weatherford came by from Danville Fair and accompanied Jimmie Cook to the Falls for a week's good feasting and sleep. Jim Harper and Jim Reid are at Russell fall farm-work.

Springs taking a rest before beginning

Prof. M. G. Thompson and wife were called home from Russell

Springs by the illness of their little daughter.

Mrs. Sophie Carpenter, of Somerset,

has been spending a few days

with her parents and brother.

She goes to Green Briar this week accompanied by her mother and Mrs. J. B. Green.

Mrs. Dr. Lee Huffman, of Lexington, is

with her parents.

Mrs. S. G. Drue, accompanied by Brother and Millard Allen, went to the Falls last week.

Miss Dollie Williams will teach at Nicholasville the ensuing year. Her excellence as a teacher insures a remunerative salary.

Bothering Questions.

If a goose weighs 10 pounds and half its own weight, what is the weight of the goose?

Many persons have undoubtedly been tempted to answer 15 pounds, when the correct answer, of course, is 20 pounds, as they discover after giving the problem a little thought. An exceedingly wise man has sometimes been caught by a very simple question of this sort. The following for example:

How many days would it take to cut up a piece of cloth 50 yards long, one yard being cut off every day?

Or this:

A snail climbing up a post 20 feet high ascends five feet every day and slips down four feet every night. How long will it take the snail to reach the top of the post?

These are simple questions in arithmetic, and yet, how many persons would answer 50 days, instead of 49 to the first one, and 20 instead of 16 to the last one. It is perhaps scarcely necessary to point out that the snail would gain one foot a day for fifteen days, and on the 16th day reach the top of the pole, and there, of course, remain.

THANKS, BRO. MARRS.—While we did not look through the constitutional question through the same spectacles as our neighbor, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, nevertheless we can heartily congratulate our friend on reaping the fruit of his excellent editorial work in having the county of Lincoln endorse his view of the case. It is a splendid tribute to him as a journalist and an evidence of the influence of a well-conducted local newspaper in shaping opinion on a question of public policy about which people have honest and conscientious convictions of difference.—Lancaster Record.

Paris is laughing over a joke about an American inventor who is said to have patented an electric corset that is to bring about the reign of morality at once. If one of these articles is pressed by a lover's arm it at once emits a shriek like the whistle of a railway engine, and the inventor claims that he has already married three of his daughters, owing to the publicity thus thrust upon a back-bard lover.

"Vell, Moses, how many of dose sleeve protector haf you sold already?"

"I don'd sell nodings yet already dis morning. Effery dime I holler out 'five cent a pair!' dose dago across yonder yell 'here dey are! Dree pears for five cents!' and my pizness is ruined."

Maple Shade Stock Farm.

Mr. E. P. Faulconer, of Danville, remarks: "I used your trial box of Quino's Ointment and took off a Curb. Have since used two bottles. It is very satisfactory." Testimonials of this character are surely convincing evidence.

Jake Simpson—"Your father thinks I am a fast young man."

Cora Bellows (yawning)—"I don't see how he could."—New York Herald.

FARM AND TRADE ITEMS.

—W. M. McAfee sold 44 ewes to G. C. Givens at $3.75.

—W. H. Prewitt bought of William Tewmey, of Boyle, 16 2-year-old cattle at 3 cents.

—M. O. Vandever sold the 40 nice ewes advertised in this paper to Thompson at $3.75.

—W. H. Bush bought of Dr. Drake for September delivery 52 fat cattle at 5½ cents.—Mt. Sterling Sentinel.

—B. F. Hayden bought of W. A. Hail a nice bunch of feeding cattle at a little over $2 a head. They weigh about $30.

—J. L. Cogar bought 50,000 pounds of tobacco in the Stamping Ground district, Scott county, last week, at 5 to 11c.—Midway Clipper.

—A. B. Bonta has realized $2,000 from his sheep the past year, $1,600 from the lambs and $400 from the wool. This is the sort of industry that is being ruined by the depredations of worthless curs.—Harrodsburg Democrat.

—The business branch of the Kansas alliance has completed arrangements to handle three-fourths of the 50,000 bushels of the present wheat crop of that State, and advance 75 per cent. of its market value to the farmers.

—Anderson Carr's Nancy Carr trotted second in the stake for three-year-olds at Danville. Crit Davis' Andy Cutler won in 2:29½ to 2:30½. J. E. Farris took the premium on his mare again, and E. D. Kennedy got the blue in the walking ring.

—J. P. Crow's Alex. C. by Belmont Chief won the yearling race at the Columbia fair in two straight heats. The distance was ½ a mile and he trotted the first in 2:19 and the second in 2:15½.

The first half of the last heat was trotted in 1:21½ and the half mile was made in 1:21½.

—Yesterday was not a lively court day, but a good deal of trading was indulged in a small way. T. W. Bottoms reports on lot of 500-pound rough steers brought $8.65; Jersey cows $24; 30 ewes $2.50 per head; lot 400-pound heifers $9.60; lot steers $13.90; plug horses $75; small lot steers $14.60; 1 mule $90. Crowd Small.

—Yesterday was not a lively court day, but a good deal of trading was indulged in a small way. T. W. Bottoms reports on lot of 500-pound rough steers brought $8.65; Jersey cows $24; 30 ewes $2.50 per head; lot 400-pound heifers $9.60; lot steers $13.90; plug horses $75; small lot steers $14.60; 1 mule $90. Crowd Small.

—Sunol will attempt to beat the trotting record at a California fair this week. She has her own record of 2:10½, made in her three-year-old form. She also has to face the record by Maud S. of 2:08½. Sunol has a half-mile record of 1:02½, which is a 2:05 gait, but it does not follow that she or any other horse will ever be able to make a full mile in that time.

—Tate & Catron bought the past week 60 head of sheep from Harve Pointer at $2.50, and 91 head from Tom Rankin at $2.60. The peach crop of this section is very fine this season, the fruit being large, perfect and delicious generally. Immense quantities are being shipped and the prices realized are about $1 per bushel. This is also the local retail price.

—Somerset Reporter.

—Wheat has been coming into Lancaster in small installments, at 75¢ per bushel. The complaint about smut continues and a very material injury to the crop has resulted. Our farmers ought to get an entirely new seed wheat, and try to stamp out smut. It will pay to do so.

W. S. and R. A. Beazley weighed on last Friday the splendid bunch of export cattle sold last January at 5¢ to Simon Wiehl, for Goldsmith. There were 79 head, and the average was 1,650 lbs.

They were fed but little corn, and were in fine condition for shipping.—Record.

—Proctor Knott, the great race horse, died Friday in his stable at Saratoga. He had been critically ill of catarrhal fever and his death was not a surprise. In his two-year-old form Proctor Knott won $75,000, and is the only horse that ever won the Junior Champion Stakes and the Futurity. Sam Bryant and the Scroggins Bros. bought him when a colt for $450 and at the auction sale when Bryant and the Scroggins' dissolved the Scroggins' bought him for $17,500. While Proctor Knott was a general favorite and was always backed, his losses came at inopportune times and a great deal of money has been lost on him.

JUDGE J. M. UNTHANK, of Pineville who was red-hot against the new constitution, writes as follows to Hon. R. C. Warren:

Harlan blacked the constitutional eye to the tune of 700 and cast more votes for John Young Brown than any other democrat who ever asked for these people's votes. I have changed my figures since yesterday and now I want to keep my office in Pineville, have a farm in Lincoln, summer resorts in Boone and Estill, but I must have a last resting place, and will crawl into my popular box in Harlan.

"Are you ready, Emma?" John called.

"Yes. I'll be there in a minute; I've only my bonnet to put on."

"All right. I'll have time to shave before we go."

"I have such an indulgent husband," said little Mrs. Doll. "Yes, so George says," responded Mrs. Spiteful. "Some-times indulges too much, doesn't he?"—Boston Transcript.

Mamma—"You naughty girl! You've eaten every cookee there was in the plate. I told you you might have three."

Little Edita—"Yes, but you didn't tell me which three. So I had to eat all to be sure to get the right ones."—Boston Transcript.

"Vell, Moses, how many of dose sleeve protector haf you sold already?"

"I don'd sell nodings yet already dis morning. Effery dime I holler out 'five cent a pair!' dose dago across yonder yell 'here dey are! Dree pears for five cents!' and my pizness is ruined."

Maple Shade Stock Farm.

Mr. E. P. Faulconer, of Danville, remarks: "I used your trial box of Quino's Ointment and took off a Curb. Have since used two bottles. It is very satisfactory." Testimonials of this character are surely convincing evidence.

Jake Simpson—"Your father thinks I am a fast young man."

Cora Bellows (yawning)—"I don't see how he could."—New York Herald.

LONDON, LAUREL COUNTY.

—Rice & Woods are in town, with a lot of Indian ponies, which they intend to dispose of here on county court day, Monday.

—Capt. Jack McGee, architect and builder, has just about completed the addition to Mrs. Bettie Faris' residence, which will be one of the handsomest residences in London.

—The new race-track at the fair ground is a half-mile long and pronounced by the several horsemen who have seen it to be as good as any in the State. A big time is expected at our fair.

—Mr. A. R. Dyche, editor of the Mountain Echo, and Walker, youngest son of Tom Province, are down with typhoid fever. Mr. Ford is getting along well, and the many friends of the others are hopeful and anxious for them.

—The London cornet band will play for the Barbourville Fair on September 3d and 4th, notwithstanding that Barbourville has two bands. The London band has quite a reputation in this section and at all "big" occasions are used everywhere.

—Mr. Fred Hugi has received an appointment as one of the World's Fair architects and

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

W. P. WALTON.

STANFORD, KY., - AUGUST 11, 1891

Gov. Brown, Your Attention, Please.

The New Constitution provides in Sec. 254 that upon its ratification by the people, the governor shall appoint three persons, learned in the law, who shall revise the statute laws and prepare amendments thereto in order that they shall conform to and effectuate the constitution, such revision and amendments to be submitted to the general assembly for its adoption or rejection. A number of learned and distinguished lawyers has been suggested for the commission and without consulting the gentleman and with no knowledge whatever of his wishes in the matter, the INTERIOR JOURNAL, satisfied as are all who know him of his eminent fitness for the task, begs leave likewise to suggest one to Gov. Brown—that of our big bodied, big-brained, and honored citizen, Col. William Gatewood Welch. Possessing a thorough knowledge of law and the ability to write pure English, the statutes under his pen would not be marred by the frequent breaks of grammar and awkwardness of construction which unfortunately characterize many of those now in force, but would be given a clearness of expression and a terseness of language as to admit of no doubt as to their meaning. The position is one of which any lawyer would be proud and in suggesting the name of Col. Welch we do so with the absolute assurance from those capable of judging that he is the peer of any lawyer in Kentucky and fitted in every respect to fill it with credit to himself and satisfaction to the State.

THE G. A. R. meeting, at Detroit, decided to rescind the order granting post charters to colored troops, and hereafter the negro will be as big a man in the G. A. R. as his white brother. This is going to create much kicking in the South, but as it is a question of pensions and policy it will end in kicking. The bold soldier boys evinced throughout the entire encampment that they were out for the stuff by making further demands on the treasury. They now want in addition to their pensions $2 a day for the period each served in the Southern prisons and expense of transportation home. As it is notorious that many of the so-called soldiers sought to be captured and imprisoned in preference to fighting it can easily be seen how unjust such demands are and how insatiate the G. A. R. is. Congress should turn a deaf ear to such legalized robbery of honest citizens, but it will not as long as the body stands ready with its vote to crush any member who dares stand up for those who have the burden to bear.

LITTLE PHIL THOMPSON, who was not appointed by President Cleveland to be commissioner of internal revenue, will never forgive him as long as he lives. The recent election gave him another chance to bark at his heels. Gorman, he says, is the coming man. "Cleveland is not in it. He has been weighed in the balance in Kentucky and found wanting, and so he will be in every other State." We should like to have a specification as to what he has been found wanting in. Surely Kentucky has no quarrel against Mr. Cleveland for not giving Mr. Thompson an office, or for any other cause. At least the masses have nothing but praise for him, which snubbed senators, congressmen and office-seekers can find out by going among them.

PEOPLE are flocking from this and other countries to Treves in Rhenish Prussia, the oldest municipality in Germany, to witness the exhibition of Jesus' coat, spoken of in John 19:23 and 24, which is claimed has been discovered there. It is without seam and woven from the top throughout, but that doesn't signify that it was Jesus' coat. The story is about on a par with that sent out from Rome that a figure of the Savior was seen to wink its eyes. Verily business must be dull in that part of the world.

It is telegraphed from the Massachusetts retreat where Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland are living an idyllic existence, that her mother and aunt are already on hand in expectation of an event that will bring joy to the household and congratulation to the ex-president from all over the country. The uncrowned queen of American womanhood will always be an object of interest to loving subjects who now wish her a safe deliverance and a happy issue.

THE UNIVERSITY at Sewanee, Tenn., conferred the degree of LL. D. on Hon. Henry Watterson, which in his case can not stand for what the school boy thought it did, long-legged devil, for he is considerably short in the stride, and far from being a devil, though he frequently gets between him and the deep blue sea.

THE patent office is the only self supporting establishment belonging to the government at Washington. It granted 25,307 of the 39,694 applications for patents during the last fiscal year and cleared it by over $150,000.

The Bligneyer Ice Machine Co., Cincinnati, has failed for $25,000.

R. L. MARIMON has bought out his partner, W. T. Ewing, in the Harrodsburg Sayings, and will hereafter hold a lone hand. Mr. Ewing resumes the practice of law.

Wood's majority in Whitley was only 90, less than half the republican majority. The constitution only carried by 88.

Harvey Myers, of Covington, T. S. Pettit, of Owensboro, and W. H. Moore, of Harrison county, are in the field for speaker of the next House.

Harlan gave 732 majority against the constitution. Besides it and Lincoln, Boone, Estill, Nicholas, Cumberland, Russell, and Breathitt gave majorities against that instrument so far as heard from.

Madison gave Wood a majority of seven, but D. W. Tribble, democrat, pulled through for the legislature by two. This is pretty close for Durrett, but it is as good as a thousand so far as his right to the office is concerned.

NEWSY NOTES.

Jerome A. Sparks, a republican politician and stock dealer of Jessamine, has failed for $12,000.

A tremendous rain and hail storm destroyed nearly 4,000 acres of standing grain near Crookston, Minn.

During the last fiscal year the employes of the Railway Mail Service made only one error for each 4,193 pieces handled.

Joe Levo shot and killed his sweetheart, Ida Kepp, in a beer garden in Cincinnati, because she gave him the sack for another fellow.

The grand army of pensioners will meet at Washington next year to be nearer the remains of the treasury.—Louisville Times.

At Seneca, Kas., a train struck a carriage full of people. Two of the occupants were killed and four others were seriously injured.

The Republican says that the voters of Pulaski gave 375 majority for a workhouse for its offenders which the magistrates will order built at once.

The Chesapeake & Ohio continues to furnish surprises in the way of earnings. Last month the system earned $758,452. Increase over July, 1890, $114,780.36.

James Thorongood was not as thoroughbad as he seemed to have been. He was hung at Dover, Del., for rape Friday, but died protesting his innocence.

Enos Howard, one of the Harlan county murderers awaiting trial at Williamsburg, cut his throat with a razor in his cell in the Whitley county jail and will die.

Four negro prisoners, charged with incendiarism, were taken by a mob from the officers in Henry county, Ala., near the Florida State line, bound and thrown into the river.

Several persons including Dr. Webb of Bryantsville, have been injured at night by barbed wire stretched across the Nicholasville pike by some unknown scoundrels.

Hon. Thomas W. Bocock, for 14 years a member of congress from Virginia, and for four years speaker of the confederate congress, died at his home in Appomattox, aged 66.

A dispatch from Somerset says the house of Frank Barker, worth $1,500, was destroyed there by fire. Many other houses would have been destroyed had it not been for the water works.

Gov. Fleming, of Florida, has refused to issue a certificate of election as United States senator to Wilkinson Call, on the ground that a quorum of the state senate did not join the house in the election.

Father Quay, a Catholic priest at Seattle, Wash., was tarred and feathered by the irate citizens for enticing children of both sexes to his room and practicing various forms of immorality after filling them with liquor.

A robber entered the bank at Columbus Grove, O., and after shooting the cashier and killing a bystander, escaped with $1,500, saying as he left, "I'm a second Jesus James." He was pursued by the citizens and shot to death.

The Masonic Savings Bank of Louisville, suspended Saturday, and assigned to the Germania Safety Vault and Trust Co. It has been in hard lines for some time and the failure was not unexpected. Its officers claim that it will pay out in full.

Ex-Senator Ingalls, in an address in Georgia, declared that the enfranchisement of the negro was a mistake, and that the Northern people, if they had been in the shoes of the Southern whites, would have fought the Force bill just as the South did.

President A. A. Arthur has returned from London to Middlesboro and says that the developments now under way would be continued with even more vigor than in the past, and that the mineral development, of coal and iron especially, would be pushed for all it is worth.

The St. Louis express on the West Shore road collided with a freight train near Port Bryon, N. Y. Eleven persons were killed and a number of others were badly hurt. The victims are mostly Italians who were riding in the smoking car. The freight train was running on the schedule of the express.

Some writers, not learned in the law, fancy that the new Kentucky constitution forbids lotteries. So did the old one; but the court of appeals sustained them as vested rights. The court of appeals will be engaged, for the rest of this century, in trying to find out what the new constitution means.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The fishy story is telegraphed from Paris that a balloon passed over that section Friday from which there was dropped a bottle in which was a note in French, which being translated, read that the airship had left Paris, France, May 11, with four persons on a voyage to last three years, in the interest of the French Topographical Society.

Captain John Palmer, the new commander-in-chief of the G. A. R., was born on Staten Island, March 22, 1842, and has a splendid war record. He enlisted in the 91st New York Volunteers, September 1, 1861, and was constantly with that regiment until it was mustered out July 3, 1865, taking part in all its engagements. He was seriously injured at the battle of Five Forks, in the combined charge of cavalry and infantry. He has followed fresco painting since the war.

To-day the great State of Texas holds an election which involves five proposed amendments to her constitution. The first seeks to regulate her rate of interest and to provide a fair usury law. The second seeks to furnish a registration law, with all modern improvements, hot and cold. The third has for its ostensible object the improvement of the common schools. The fourth relates to local option. The fifth seeks to create intermediate courts of appeal.

The people's party in Ohio nominated John Seitz, of Seneca, a former greenbacker, for Governor. The platform calls for woman suffrage, the suppression of bucket-shops, election of United States senators by direct popular vote, forfeiture of the Standard Oil Company's charter, compulsory education and free school-books, State control of the liquor traffic, government loans to individuals, free silver coinage, income taxation, abolition of National banks, government ownership of transportation lines, plenty of greenbacks, and the devil knows what all.

Teachers' Institute.

The twelfth annual session of the Lincoln County Teachers' Institute convened at 10:45 A. M., at the court house yesterday. Out of the 60 odd teachers in the county all but about half dozen were present. It was apparent on looking over the body that the majority of these mid-trainers are women. After the selection of Mr. R. Lee Davis as secretary of the Institute, the exercises were opened by Supt. W. F. McClary, who made some appropriate introductory remarks, after which a feeling prayer was offered up by W. H. Meachum. Prof. S. J. Pulliam, of Georgetown College, who conducted the institute two years ago, was then introduced by Supt. McClary as instructor, and that gentleman proceeded to deliver his opening address, which was replete with stimulating and elevating advice to the teachers concerning the importance of their profession and the urgent reforms needed in the system. A committee on program, consisting of Prof. J. W. Smith, Miss May Kay and Mrs. J. F. Gover was next selected, and after mature deliberations drafted the following program for the week's exercise:

TUESDAY MORNING.

Language Lessons, Miss Allie Stuart. Primary Grammar and Composition, Miss Cettie Thurmond.

AFTERNOON.

Advanced Grammar, J. W. Smith. Sciences in Public Schools, Mrs. Allen. Benefits Derived from County Association, Prof. McClary.

WEDNESDAY, A. M.

Primary Arithmetic, Mrs. Gover. Mental Arithmetic, Mr. Brough. Advanced Arithmetic, J. W. Smith and Mr. Cole.

WEDNESDAY, P. M.

Physiology, N. W. Hughes. Psychology, J. W. Smith. Literature in Public Schools, Prof. Pulliam.

How to Grade the Country Schools so as to Carry on a Continuous Course of Study From Year to Year, Mr. Cole. Kindergarten Methods in Common School Work.

THURSDAY, A. M.

History, R. Lee Davis. Geography, Miss Bettie Carter and Miss Stuart.

Importance of Self Culture, Mrs. Gover.

THURSDAY, P. M.

Civil Government, Mr. Chappell. School Government, Miss Bettie Lyon. How to Elevate Standard of Teachers, Examiners.

FRIDAY, A. M.

Theory and Practice of Teaching, Mr. Brough.

School Law and Duty of Trustees, Mr. McClary and Cole.

Miscellaneous business.

The teachers present are Miss Cettie Thurmond, Mrs. Bettie Eubanks, Mrs. J. F. Gover, N. W. Hughes, J. A. Chappell, Miss Ellen Thurmond, Miss Mary Kay, Miss Lydia Lewis, Mrs. Bettie Carpenter, L. T. Cole, J. H. Thomas, T. S. Benson, W. R. Cress, Miss Bettie Tompkins, Mrs. Allie Phillips, Miss Nora Phillips, Miss Ellen Douglas, Miss Sabra Hays, Levi Elder, J. W. Smith, V. E. Caldwell, W. A. Collier, Miss Nannie Bailey, Miss Rutkella Ellisor, Miss Lida Lewis, Miss Mollie Montgomery, H. S. Young, Miss Kate Hayes, Miss Bettie Lyon, S. D. Magree, Miss Mollie Frye, J. W. Barren, W. D. Dye, Miss Birdie Carpenter, Perry Wesley, Miss Julia Stagg, Jacob Elder, Wm. Dunerant, M. D. Wall, C. M. Young, M. J. Brough, Miss Jennie Reynolds, G. Singleton, Mrs. Nannie B. Jennings, Miss Mollie Ware, Virtes Williams, J. B. Wall, Miss Lou Moore, W. H. Meachum, R. Lee Davis.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Mr. Thomas Robinson says that he killed a black snake several days ago, which measured 5½ feet in length.

J. H. Vanhook bought this week of various parties in this locality 600 bushels of new wheat for which he paid 75 cents.

The Crab Orchard Common and High School will open on Monday, Aug. 17. J. W. Smith, Prin.; Miss Leah Steger, Assistant.

Miss Jennie Withers, of Lower Lincoln, is visiting Miss Lida Edmiston. Messrs. Wick Dillian and Will Bettis were here Sunday to see the fair sex.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. O'Bryan, of Junction City, will be pleased to hear of the death of their little boy, William Meigs, which occurred Friday last.

Miss Jennie Reynolds, of Gum Sulphur, will teach the school at Watts' Chapel, and S. D. Magee will lead the youthful minds of the "Turkey Town" neighborhood along the rugged paths of knowledge.

We see by the Louisville Times of the 7th inst. that our illustrious townsmen, Col. J. Peter Chandler, is a candidate for doorkeeper of the next General Assembly. If big body, big head, big heart, and big feet play any part in the contest, the Lincoln county entry is sure to get there with all four legs off the ground and tail over the dash board!

It was rumored here Friday that our pretty and captivating depot agent, Mrs. J. A. Newland, who a few days ago left for the mountains to visit friends, had been taken in tow by a handsome and monied woer of that Eldorado section, and conducted to the hymenial altar. The report, however, was without foundation, but if J. Peter Chandler becomes doorkeeper of the next Legislature, such a climax is possible.

One intelligent (?) voter here election day on being asked at the polls if he was "for or against the new constitution," replied by asking "who is running for the darn thing?" We suggest that he be put in the same boat with our friend, Lewis Dishon, who on being apprised of the result of the election next day said that he guessed several other States besides Kentucky went for the constitution. They're a pretty pair of freemen to be sure.

Two Germans answering to the names of Mores and Norman Adelstein were arrested here Saturday and tried before Squire Blankenship on a charge of stealing an old mill boiler from Jim Melvin and John Stringer. The Adelsteins are from Louisville, and, along with a car load of scrap iron which they bought in this locality and shipped to that city last week, was the aforesaid mill boiler, which they seem to have bought from somebody to whom it did not belong. They were held in $50 bond and Patent Moore at whose house they were staying agreed to hold their horse and wagon until the bond was fixed up. Saturday night, however, the wily Tuttons forced the lock of Moore's stable, eased out their "rig" and aided by the darkness of the night, skipped to a more hospitable court.

While returning home from town Monday evening, Mr. Warry Wallin met with an accident which came near cost him some broken bones. He was riding his brother's race horse, "Capt. Welch," and a shower coming up he hastily hoisted his umbrella, when the animal, not accustomed to that sort of thing, fetched a sudden plunge and launched Mr. Wallin some 15 feet distant, bruising his chest, skinning his hands and arms and knocking daylight out of him for awhile. Fortunately his foot was extricated from the stirrup, or he would have been dragged to death by the frightened equine. He was picked up by his father a quarter of an hour afterwards and Saturday was able to be upon the street.

Mrs. Dr. Black, of Madison county is visiting her mother, Mrs. J. S. Fish. Misses Nannie and Bettie Edmiston went to Stanford Thursday to be the guests of Miss Lizzie Menee for several days. Mrs. Lillie Rice, who was Miss Lillie Lytes, at one time assistant teacher in the High School here, arrived this week, and is the guest of the Misses Stuart, on Springs avenue. Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Redd, Jr., accompanied by their interesting children, Fannie, Kate and Jim, left Thursday last for a month's visit to relatives and friends in Eastern Kentucky. Mrs. Mollie Collier, of Middlesboro, Mrs. McGill and handsome daughter, Miss Lillie, of Louisville, are with Mrs. W. P. Tate, enjoying the gayeties of C. O. summer life. Mr. Elisha Bullock, one of Rockcastle's substantial farmers, is down to see his kinsman, Capt. C. A. Middleton. Mrs. Henry Arnold, of Lancaster, came over in her fine "turn out" and spent Sunday with Mrs. J. S. Fish. S. D. Hardin, who for months has been making headquarters at Dillon's, is visiting the home folks here and hymning the praises of his erstwhile mountain home, which he says is in the very heart of God's country. Mr. Henry Magee has gone to Pineville. Miss Maggie Middleton spent Sunday with her friend, Miss Lizzie Lynn. Miss Birdie Dinson, a handsome brunet of the Lone Star State, is here on a visit to her sister, Mrs. W. E. Perkins.

→H. C. RUPLEY, ←
Merchant Sailor,

Is Receiving His

Spring: Summer Goods

Goods Warranted and a Perfect Fit Guaranteed. Give him a call.

THE WILLARD,

—LATE ALEXANDER'S HOTEL.—

THOROUGHLY RENOVATED AND IMPROVED.

Rates $2.50 Per Day.

Cor. Jefferson, Center and Green Streets, opposite Court-House, LOUISVILLE, KY.

W. R. LOGAN, Manager.

A. W. Jones, J. J. Sullivan, J. L. Marshall, Clerks.

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

STANFORD, KY., - AUGUST 11, 1891

E. C. WALTON, Bus. Manager

MEANS BUSINESS.

ENGRAVING beautifully and artistically done at A. R. Penny's.

Your account is now ready. Please call and settle, A. R. Penny.

HAVE your watch, clock and jewelry repaired at A. R. Penny's. All work warranted.

REMEMBER that all silverware, watches, rings, &c., bought at A. R. Penny's will be engraved free of charge.

PERSONAL POINTS.

PETER HAMPTON has been appointed deputy jailer.

MR. J. S. HOCKER has been down with a malarial attack.

MISS ANNIE PEAKE has returned from a visit to Louisville.

MESSRS. C. D. WEBB and E. C. Walton spent Sunday in Paris.

MISS LUCY TATE has been visiting Miss Mary Dunlap, at Danville.

MISS LYN LITHGOW, of Louisville, is visiting Miss Jeanie Feland.

JUDGE C. W. METCALF and MR. J. M. Purcell, of Pineville, are here.

MR. BROWN BURKHALTER, of Americus, Ga., is the guest of the Misses Alcorn.

MISS RACHEL ALLISON, of Georgetown, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Stephen Burch.

MISSES NANNIE MARRS and Montie Harris are visiting Miss Nora Dickinson in Garrard.

MR. B. K. WEAREN and family are at Hale's Well.

MRS. W. R. VREATCH and Mrs. Lydia Carico, of Louisville, are visiting at Mr. F. G. Brady's.

MISS SUE E. GODBREY has returned from a month's stay at Lake Chautauqua and Niagara Falls.

MISS TILLIE HALL returned home yesterday, after making many hearts glad in this vicinity.

MISSES HELEN and JENNIE REID, of Hustonville, were guests of Mrs. G. B. Cooper last week.

MRS. R. G. HAIL and son, of Somerset, are visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Wearen.

MR. AND MR. A. E. GIBBONS, of Danville, have been visiting friends here and attending the meeting.

W. C. COOK, Esq., and wife, of Corydon, Ind., have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cook.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION returned with Miss Ora Wilmore to Nicholasville to attend the fair this week.

MRS. N. J. HORTON has our thanks for a nice lot of vegetables, of which she raises such large quantities.

NEWTON CRAIG, Dick Logan and Thompson Wearen went to Knoxville Thursday night to look for positions.

MISS LAILA HAYES, who has been in Louisville for several months, is on a visit to her mother and family.

MR. R. D. OATS and wife, and Mrs. Louis Coffey and family, of Wayne, are visiting relatives in this county.

WE have always one or more men in the hospital. Foreman Joe F. Waters has been in for several days quite sick.

MISS J. B. MYERS and daughter, Miss Ross, of Lexington, are with Misses Licie and Mary Beazley and other friends.

MR. W. G. FOX, who has been visiting his cousin, Mr. Kinley Tribble, returned yesterday to his home at Roanoke, Va.

MR. JOE S. GRIMES, cashier of the First National Bank of Elizabethtown, and Miss Linda Payne, are at Mrs. Mary Grimes'.

A. F. EVANS, Esq., of Kansas City, is with friends here, who are glad to know he is prospering in his profession in his adopted home.

MR. AND MRS. J. OTTENHEIMER and Miss Florence, of New York, are at Crab Orchard Springs. Mr. O. has been in bad health for some time.

MR. JAMES T. CRAIG is some better, but is still in quite a critical condition. His disease is pernicious and is very rare, less than one in 10,000 persons suffering from it.

CAPT. B. E. ROBERTS, of Carter Bros. & Co., Louisville, was here Sunday. A good-looking widow seems to have something to do with the captain making this point so frequently a lay over.

MESSRS. G. L. WILLIS, the Louisville Times sparkling correspondent, and D. M. BROWN, the bright genius of the Woodford Sun, are enjoying the smiles of the belles at Crab Orchard.

SPEAKING of the Louisville debauches the Truth says of the little beauty now visiting here: "Miss Mary Clay Thompson is a blonde of perfect type, altogether pretty and inexpressibly prepossessing."

MR. AND MRS. E. ROSSER and Robert, of Harrodsburg, passed through to Crab Orchard yesterday to stay a few weeks. Mr. Rosser is a large railroad contractor, with work at present on the Norfolk & Western.

THE Woodford Sun says that Will C. Wheritt and wife have returned from Kansas City, and will permanently locate in Versailles, where Mr. W. will go into business with his father-in-law, James T. Bailey.

PROF. J. B. WALTON, principal of Centre College Academy, was here yesterday, accompanied by his son Edwin. We understand that a number of boys from this county will enter his excellent school next session.

A. L. SPOONAMORE and wife have been spending a few days at Hale's Well.

MR. MATT WOODSON, chief dispatcher of the C. V., is on a visit to his family.

MISS JENNIE KENNEDY passed back to Russellville yesterday, after a visit to friends in Crab Orchard and Mt. Vernon.

MISS JULIA YAGER, the lovely young lady who is the guest of Miss Mary McKinney, is very sick of fever. Hundreds of friends wish her a speedy recovery.

CITY AND VICINITY.

FRESH car-load salt at Harris & Hardin's.

FRESH fruits and confections always on hand at R. Zimmer's.

FOR SALE.—My house and lot and a good Jersey cow. J. A. Carpenter.

ENGINE—3-horse power in fair condition, for sale cheap. Apply at this office.

BORN to the wife of Mr. C. V. Gentry a 12-pound boy, which has been christened Chris. Embry Gentry.

LOST.—A cane with silver head. Name of owner and date engraved on it. Find-er please leave at store of J. B. Foster.

ALL notes and accounts not paid by Sept. 1 will be placed in the hands of an officer for collection. J. F. Holdman, Crab Orchard.

A very hot wave has been spending itself on us for the last few days, sending the mercury up Sunday to 94°. Yesterday there was a breeze, which somewhat relieved the intense heat of the sun's rays. The signal service dispatch yesterday read: "Continued warm and fair. Slightly cooler in Northern Kentucky by Tuesday."

THE city council of Middlesboro is kicking because it has to bury so many paupers. From one meeting to the next there were nine, and it was suggested that paupers from all over the country go there to die. The so-called Magic City may be a very good place to die in, but a very few people think now it is much of a place to live in.

DOORKEEPER.—Jordan Peter Chandler, of Crab Orchard, announces himself a candidate for doorkeeper of the House of Representatives, subject to the democratic caucus, and adds that he had rather have that position than dwell in the tents of wickedness. Pete is a genius and if chosen he will make a most dignified and original doorkeeper.

SHOT.—Squire E. B. Caldwell, Jr., of Waynesburg, tells us that Cicero Singleton shot Dutch Gooch, son of Lewis G. Gooch, in the head Sunday, producing a serious wound. The shooting occurred at Gooch's house and was the result of a quarrel while they were drinking together. Singleton is under arrest.

In the county court yesterday several aged and infirm persons were relieved of poll tax and several others erroneously assessed were allowed credits. T. M. Pennington qualified as justice of the peace, and Mrs. Margaret Lüscher was permitted to resume her former name of Miller. The docket being cleared Judge Varnon responded to a dispatch to come to Pineville to rebut some evidence in the Gen. Sowers' murder trial and left on the 2 o'clock train.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

BASE BALL.—Special Reporter E. W. Rochester furnishes the following: The game of ball Saturday afternoon between the third nine of Stanford and the Crab Orchards resulted in an overwhelming defeat for the visitors. The C. O.'s were never in the game and received a drubbing they are not likely to soon forget. They owe their defeat to their miserable fielding and inability to hit Rowan Saufley, who had them at his mercy. Sibold caught an excellent game, and all of the home boys acquitted themselves creditably. The score stood 33 to 11 in their favor. Batteries, Sandley and Sibold, McGee and Metcalf. Base hits, Stanfords 22; Crab Orchards 7. Errors, Stanfords 11; Crab Orchards 26. Umpire, McAnally.

GOING FOR THEM.—Mr. T. S. Benson, who was up from Casey yesterday, says the citizens of that county, which is under the local option law, were to meet the county judge at Yosemite yesterday to take steps to drive whisky-sellers from there either into the jail or from the country. There are five places in that little town where whisky can be bought and it is hoped the good people will be able to put a stop to the illegal traffic even if they have to shut off somebody's wind.

ROLLER Mills was not sold at auction yesterday as advertised, but changed hands to some extent, at an advance of 25 per cent., making the price $12,500. Dr. J. K. VanArsdale and J. W. Hayden sold out and F. Reid, S. H. Baughman, S. T. Harris, Dr. S. G. Hockner and Adam Pence now own it in equal proportion. Dr. VanArsdale will continue to superintend it for the present. Dr. S. G. Hockner was elected president.

THE Roller Mills was not sold at auction yesterday as advertised, but changed hands to some extent, at an advance of 25 per cent., making the price $12,500. Dr. J. K. VanArsdale and J. W. Hayden sold out and F. Reid, S. H. Baughman, S. T. Harris, Dr. S. G. Hockner and Adam Pence now own it in equal proportion. Dr. VanArsdale will continue to superintend it for the present. Dr. S. G. Hockner was elected president.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no help in him.

MISS LOTTIE DILLION was down yesterday to get out a warrant for George and Martin Brown, Henry and Joe Norton for burning a house on his knob farm some time ago. Mr. Lewis is an uncle of A. A. Lewis, of the Somerset Republican, and to him we command his noble example. He voted for Polk in 1844 and since then has never scratched a democratic ticket. Bro. Lewis, we regret to say, has erred and strayed like a lost sheep from the path blazed out by his uncle and there is no

SEMI-WEEKLY INTERIOR JOURNAL

Published Every Tuesday and Friday

AT

50 CENTS PER YEAR, IN ADVANCE

When not so paid $2.50 will be charged.

K. C. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Train leaves Rowland at 7:00 a. m., returning at 5:00 p. m.

L. & N. LOCAL TIME CARD.

Mail train going North.....12:30 p. m.
" " " South.....1:45 p. m.
Express train " South.....1:15 p. m.
Local Freight " North.....4:45 p. m.
" " " South.....5:30 p. m.

The latter trains also carry passengers.

The above is calculated on standard time. Solar time is about 30 minutes faster.

FOR SCROFULA

scrofulous humor
in the blood, ulcers, catarrh, and consumption,
use

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

The most economical, safe, speedy, and effective of all blood-purifiers.

Has Cured Others
will cure you.

A. S. PRICE,
SURGEON DENTIST.
Office on Main street, over W. B. McRoberts'
Drug Store, Stanford.

R. C. MORGAN, D. D. S.
DENTIST.
Office on Main street, opposite Portman House,
Nitrous Oxide Gas given for painless extraction.

STANFORD, KENTUCKY.

THE SHELTON HOUSE,
D. A. TWADDLE, Proprietor.
Rowland, - - Kentucky.

First-class accommodations at reasonable rates.
Open day and night. Sample room and good livery in connection.

94-00

COOK'S SPRINGS

Situated in a beautiful valley on Dix River, about 4½ miles east of Rowland, on the county road leading from Goshen to the Stanford and Preachersburg roads, will be open for those seeking a quiet, pleasant and healthful Summer Resort. First-class accommodations will be furnished to guests and, as the Springs have been very much improved, the terms will be reasonable. Among the many amusements will be dancing, boating, fishing, etc. Carriages will meet guests at Rowland when notified. The season of 1851 will open with a Grand Picnic June 19. Terms for board can be had by addressing J. F. COOK, Prop., Stanford, Ky.

25

J. F. COOK, Prop., Stanford, Ky.

Farmers Bank & Trust Co.

OF STANFORD, KY.

Is now fully organized and ready for business with

Paid up Capital of - - $200,000.
Surplus, - - - - 15,000.

SUCCESSOR TO THE LINCOLN NATIONAL BANK OF STANFORD,

Now closing up with the same assets and under

By provisions of its charter, depositors are as fully protected as are depositors in National Banks, its shareholders being held individually liable to the extent of the amount of their stock therein at the par value thereof, in addition to the amount invested in such shares. It may act as executive administrator, trustee, &c., as fully as an individual.

To those who entrusted their business to us while managing the Lincoln National Bank of Stanford, we here tender our thanks and trust they will continue to transact their business with us, offering as a guarantee for prompt attention to same, our twenty years' experience in banking and as liberal accommodations as are consistent with sound banking.

DIRECTORS:

J. J. Williams, Mt. Vernon;

J. M. Hall, Stanford;

J. S. Owsley, Stanford;

S. J. Embry, Stanford;

J. E. Lynn, Stanford;

A. W. Carpenter, Milledgeville;

J. K. Baughman, Hustonville;

J. F. Cash, Stanford;

William Gooch, Stanford, Ky.

S. H. Shanks, President.

J. B. Owsley, Cashier.

W. M. Bright, Teller.

J. H. Baughman, General Book Keeper.

25

J. F. COOK, Prop., Stanford, Ky.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF STANFORD, KY.

Capital Stock.....$200,000

Surplus.....16,500

Attention of the public is invited to the fact that this is the only National Bank in Stanford. Under the provisions of the National Bank Act, depositors are secured not only by the capital stock, but by the stockholders' liability, which is equal to the stock, so that depositors of this bank are secured by a fund of $400,000. Five sworn statements of the condition of the bank are made each year to the United States government and its assets are examined at stated times by government agents, thus securing additional and perfect safety to depositors.

The institution originally established as the Deposit Bank of Stanford in 1838, then re-organized as the National Bank of Stanford in 1865 and again re-organized as the First National Bank of Stanford in 1870, has had a quiet and uneventful existence of 22 years. It is better supplied now with facilities for transacting business promptly and liberally than ever before in its long and honorable career. Accounts of corporations, fiduciaries, firms and individuals respectively solicited.

The Directory of this Bank is composed of

T. J. Foster, of Stanford;

Forest Reid, Lincoln county;

J. W. Hayden, Stanford;

S. H. Baughman, Lincoln;

M. J. Miller, Mt. Vernon;

S. T. Harris, Lincoln;

J. S. Hocker, Stanford;

G. A. Lackey, Lincoln;

T. P. Hill, Stanford;

W. G. Welch, Stanford;

W. P. Tate, Stanford.

OFFICERS:

J. S. Hocker, President;

John J. McRoberts, Cashier;

A. A. McKey, Assistant Cashier.

95-12

The Unpopular Half.

There is one unpopular coin issued by Uncle Sam. It is the half dollar, and it has a tendency to work its way back into the treasury vaults, where it isn't wanted. As money nobody objects to the half, but the popular fancy is for the same value in another form. That is, the average citizen prefers to have two quarters. They are a trifle more convenient. If he wants to pay out half a dollar he can use the half or the two quarters with equal convenience, but if twenty-five cents is to be paid out the quarter is far the handier coin.

This may not seem to be a very important matter, but it counts in the long run. Little by little the halves find their way back to the government vaults, and there they stay, like poor relations in fact, so far as coming home in disgrace goes, the half dollar is the prodigal son of the mints.

A very large proportion of the $20,000,000 of fractional silver on hand at Washington is made up of halves. This is the lot which Secretary Foster was so anxious to get rid of, and about which he talked with the New York bankers when he made his visit here. Nobody then manifested any wild desire to take the secretary's load off his shoulders.

It is probable that a good many of the halves stored up in Washington will be coined into quarters and dimes. In that way they will be more convenient for popular use.

Of course lots of halves are used, and will continue to be used. Their coinage will be kept up, and nobody will have any more difficulty in getting them than usual. But the proportion of other coins will be increased because the people like them better.

The New York subtreasury has its share of halves on hand, and the other day it tried to work off some of them. It was a day when pension checks were being paid, and nearly every one was cashed partly in halves. Before the close of the day a good many of the halves were back in the subtreasury. And they are there yet.—New York Times.

To Set Stray Letters Aright.

The dead letter office of the postoffice department has just published a large volume of nearly 800 pages which is expected to reduce the number of letters which go to the dead letter office because of imperfect addresses. The volume is entitled "A Street Directory of the Principal Cities in the United States." A great deal of time and patient attention to details have been expended upon the collection and systematic arrangement of the contents of the book.

All the streets, avenues, squares, "lanes," "roads," etc., of the same names in the nearly 500 free delivery offices of this country are grouped and so displayed as to facilitate search. The highest and lowest numbers on each of these streets are given to assist postmasters in correcting imperfect addresses where the street name is found in more than one town. This directory is furnished to postmasters at the free delivery offices for use in perfecting the addresses of such letters and parcels as may reach their offices, though manifestly intended for delivery elsewhere. — Washington Star.

WHISPERS ABOUT WOMEN.

Miss Harriet Blaine, the secretary's daughter, is said to be one of the most expert of the society ladies who play billiards.

Mrs. Georgia Kendrick, wife of the late Rev. Dr. Kendrick, has been elected to the lady principship of Vassar college, and has accepted.

Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt has a calm, lovely face which is suggestive of the Madonna, a clear, pale skin, deep, dark blue eyes and soft brown hair.

Two pieces of Dr. Elisha Kent Kane, the Arctic explorer, live on Chestnut hill, Philadelphia, in a house that occupies the highest point of land in the city.

Miss Frances E. Willard says that her rising hour is 7 or 7:30, and that 10 p. m. is her latest hour for retiring. To this habit she attributes her lifelong good health and steady cheerfulness.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the Grand Old Man's daughter, is one of the most noteworthy women in England. In looks she resembles her father. She is always laughing, joking, telling stories, and invariably keeps the dinner table in a roar.

The wife of a well known naval officer in Washington wears a very handsome gold necklace that once adorned the neck of a Peruvian princess. The lady's husband took it from the princess, whose mummified body he found in a Peruvian grave.

Mrs. Julia Averill, an aged Kansas City lady who writes poetry for amusement, sent a few congratulatory verses to Prince Bismarck on his eighty-second birthday. The ex-chancellor responded in a brief note expressing his sincere thanks for the courtesy.

Mrs. Wall of Ridgewood, N. J., is worthy of being the wife of a justice of the peace, a position which she fills, for when a brutal ruffian attacked her and a lady friend she filled him so full of lead that the doctors said it would spoil their instruments to cut into him.

Miss Frances E. Willard says that her rising hour is 7 or 7:30, and that 10 p. m. is her latest hour for retiring. To this habit she attributes her lifelong good health and steady cheerfulness.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the Grand Old Man's daughter, is one of the most noteworthy women in England. In looks she resembles her father. She is always laughing, joking, telling stories, and invariably keeps the dinner table in a roar.

The wife of a well known naval officer in Washington wears a very handsome gold necklace that once adorned the neck of a Peruvian princess. The lady's husband took it from the princess, whose mummified body he found in a Peruvian grave.

Mrs. Julia Averill, an aged Kansas City lady who writes poetry for amusement, sent a few congratulatory verses to Prince Bismarck on his eighty-second birthday. The ex-chancellor responded in a brief note expressing his sincere thanks for the courtesy.

Mrs. Wall of Ridgewood, N. J., is worthy of being the wife of a justice of the peace, a position which she fills, for when a brutal ruffian attacked her and a lady friend she filled him so full of lead that the doctors said it would spoil their instruments to cut into him.

Miss Frances E. Willard says that her rising hour is 7 or 7:30, and that 10 p. m. is her latest hour for retiring. To this habit she attributes her lifelong good health and steady cheerfulness.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the Grand Old Man's daughter, is one of the most noteworthy women in England. In looks she resembles her father. She is always laughing, joking, telling stories, and invariably keeps the dinner table in a roar.

The wife of a well known naval officer in Washington wears a very handsome gold necklace that once adorned the neck of a Peruvian princess. The lady's husband took it from the princess, whose mummified body he found in a Peruvian grave.

Mrs. Julia Averill, an aged Kansas City lady who writes poetry for amusement, sent a few congratulatory verses to Prince Bismarck on his eighty-second birthday. The ex-chancellor responded in a brief note expressing his sincere thanks for the courtesy.

Mrs. Wall of Ridgewood, N. J., is worthy of being the wife of a justice of the peace, a position which she fills, for when a brutal ruffian attacked her and a lady friend she filled him so full of lead that the doctors said it would spoil their instruments to cut into him.

Miss Frances E. Willard says that her rising hour is 7 or 7:30, and that 10 p. m. is her latest hour for retiring. To this habit she attributes her lifelong good health and steady cheerfulness.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the Grand Old Man's daughter, is one of the most noteworthy women in England. In looks she resembles her father. She is always laughing, joking, telling stories, and invariably keeps the dinner table in a roar.

The wife of a well known naval officer in Washington wears a very handsome gold necklace that once adorned the neck of a Peruvian princess. The lady's husband took it from the princess, whose mummified body he found in a Peruvian grave.

Mrs. Julia Averill, an aged Kansas City lady who writes poetry for amusement, sent a few congratulatory verses to Prince Bismarck on his eighty-second birthday. The ex-chancellor responded in a brief note expressing his sincere thanks for the courtesy.

Mrs. Wall of Ridgewood, N. J., is worthy of being the wife of a justice of the peace, a position which she fills, for when a brutal ruffian attacked her and a lady friend she filled him so full of lead that the doctors said it would spoil their instruments to cut into him.

Miss Frances E. Willard says that her rising hour is 7 or 7:30, and that 10 p. m. is her latest hour for retiring. To this habit she attributes her lifelong good health and steady cheerfulness.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the Grand Old Man's daughter, is one of the most noteworthy women in England. In looks she resembles her father. She is always laughing, joking, telling stories, and invariably keeps the dinner table in a roar.

The wife of a well known naval officer in Washington wears a very handsome gold necklace that once adorned the neck of a Peruvian princess. The lady's husband took it from the princess, whose mummified body he found in a Peruvian grave.

Mrs. Julia Averill, an aged Kansas City lady who writes poetry for amusement, sent a few congratulatory verses to Prince Bismarck on his eighty-second birthday. The ex-chancellor responded in a brief note expressing his sincere thanks for the courtesy.

Mrs. Wall of Ridgewood, N. J., is worthy of being the wife of a justice of the peace, a position which she fills, for when a brutal ruffian attacked her and a lady friend she filled him so full of lead that the doctors said it would spoil their instruments to cut into him.

Miss Frances E. Willard says that her rising hour is 7 or 7:30, and that 10 p. m. is her latest hour for retiring. To this habit she attributes her lifelong good health and steady cheerfulness.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the Grand Old Man's daughter, is one of the most noteworthy women in England. In looks she resembles her father. She is always laughing, joking, telling stories, and invariably keeps the dinner table in a roar.

The wife of a well known naval officer in Washington wears a very handsome gold necklace that once adorned the neck of a Peruvian princess. The lady's husband took it from the princess, whose mummified body he found in a Peruvian grave.

Mrs. Julia Averill, an aged Kansas City lady who writes poetry for amusement, sent a few congratulatory verses to Prince Bismarck on his eighty-second birthday. The ex-chancellor responded in a brief note expressing his sincere thanks for the courtesy.

Mrs. Wall of Ridgewood, N. J., is worthy of being the wife of a justice of the peace, a position which she fills, for when a brutal ruffian attacked her and a lady friend she filled him so full of lead that the doctors said it would spoil their instruments to cut into him.

Miss Frances E. Willard says that her rising hour is 7 or 7:30, and that 10 p. m. is her latest hour for retiring. To this habit she attributes her lifelong good health and steady cheerfulness.

Miss Helen Gladstone, the Grand Old Man's daughter, is one of the most noteworthy women in England. In looks she resembles her father. She is always laughing, joking, telling stories, and invariably keeps the dinner table in a roar